The MAZE

On Valentines' Day 1,000 University of Northern Colorado students crammed the student center ballroom to be a part of The Maze. A mix of illusion, humor and spectacle, The Maze is designed to entertain and ultimately challenge the audience to consider the question, "How can I know what is really true?" Many Cru (the name by which Campus Crusade for Christ is known on campus) students boldly invited friends, classmates and professors. After watching the show and being presented with the claims of Christ, almost 160 students indicated that they put their faith in Christ! Claire, a junior elementary education major said, "I have never been to an event on campus this big." We are trusting the Lord to keep the issue of truth, and ultimately Jesus, on the forefront of the dialogue happening on campus. The student newspaper published a front page article on The Maze the very next day! Also since the event, we have been helping our Cru students to follow up with those who attended the Maze and wanted more information. So far, we all have been very encouraged by the response. Several students have started coming to various Cru Bible studies that were not involved before the event. Here are some of the things that students had to say about The Maze...

- "I am a Jew and yet I was not offended at all – rather I felt, finally a connection with Christianity in my life."
- This changed my perception of what I believe. This changed me."
- "It inspired me to live my life through God, and fill my purpose on earth."
- "It was great. You helped me understand about Jesus and God."
- "Amazing. Would love to talk more."

We have greatly enjoyed reaching UNC with the good news of Jesus this year and are so thankful for your prayers and support to make it all possible.

A line began forming for entrance to The Maze over an hour before the event started.

Every seat was filled; students had to stand in the back and along the side walls.
