Who was Jesus?

“I can see how Jesus could’ve been the Son of God,” James replied, “Then what do you think about Jesus’ claim in the Bible where he says I am the way and the truth and the life, no one comes to the father except through me?” (John 14:6) I (Brett) asked. James responded that he knew that Jesus wanted us to believe in him and it wasn’t just about knowing who Jesus was and asked, “Doesn’t the Bible say that if we disown Jesus on earth He will disown us in heaven?” (paraphrase of Matthew 10:33) I responded that it does and asked him what he thought about that. There was a pause for a few seconds and I could tell he was thinking through the implications of Jesus’ statement. James didn’t answer the question personally, but sidestepped and started again talking about different world religions. Our conversation went on for another few minutes and I thanked him for his time and willingness to talk with me, but as I left I couldn’t help but feel sad for James and his unwillingness to accept Jesus’ invitation. I was then reminded that successful evangelism is sharing the gospel in the power of the Holy Spirit and leaving the results up to God, so I began to pray for the Holy Spirit to work in James’ heart.

RMGA

On October 4-6 we attended our annual Rocky Mountain Getaway in Estes Park, CO. The retreat hosts students from all over Colorado who want to grow spiritually. Our commute to the Getaway was 3 times longer than usual due to flooding, but thankfully that didn’t hinder many UNC students from coming, and we had more than 30 attend. Thank you for your investment in our lives and the lives of college students, who will influence the future of our world.

Over 200 students attending Rocky Mountain Getaway (RMGA) were able to bless the town of Estes by cleaning up the recent flood damage during their free time. You can read the CNN story here:

Luke had a great time playing soccer with his friends this fall, and he hopes to play again in the future. Levi turned 2 on October 13th. He had a John Deere tractor themed birthday party.

Prayer Requests

- Praise God that we had more than 30 students attend the Rocky Mountain Getaway this year.
- Please pray for the Holy Spirit to give James the faith he needs to believe that Jesus is the Son of God.
- Please pray for us to have many more opportunities to have spiritual conversations with students in the dorms.
