School is Cool!

After a fun-filled summer in Vail and across the country on our road trip through the Midwest we are happy to be back home and excited to be in full swing now that the semester has begun. Before classes started, we quickly began surveying the new students using our 'Gotta Minute' surveys to find out if they believe in God, and if they would like to know more about how to have a personal relationship with God. After classes had started, students continued to complete these surveys at events like the BBCru (a BBQ) which is held on campus to serve students with food and present them with information about Cru Bible studies and gatherings, and how they can know God personally. We were able to do more than 1,000 surveys and now have our hands full with contacting these students to tell them more about God and Cru. One way for new students to learn more about God is through our Cru Live meetings on Thursday where we worship through singing and Biblical teaching. At our first Cru Live meeting UNC students Jack, Erica, Carissa, and Aaron shared how God has been at work in their lives and more specifically how they are learning to live for Christ through their involvement with Cru. These four students are a part of a larger group of 16 Bible study leaders who will be leading in various parts of campus on different nights of the week throughout this semester. Would you please pray for many opportunities for our staff team and these student leaders to share the gospel as we call, text, and knock on the doors of the many students who filled out "Gotta Minute" surveys?

We thank God often for your partnership and pray that you are experiencing the richness of God in your daily life. Thank you so much for your prayers and support!

Brett hands a pen to a freshman as they prepare to fill out a "Gotta Minute" survey. The surveys are a tool we use to meet as many freshman as possible before classes begin for the fall semester.

The first Cru Live meeting was on August 30. Cru Live is a weekly gathering where students hear the gospel and hear testimonies from other students about how their lives have been transformed by Jesus!
